AT THE BALL PARK

Ogden Boes Salt Lake Up Again 6 to 4.

Odd Fellow Elections-Military Academy Commercement-All the News in Town-

The Salt Lake ball club came up to Ogden again yesterday and met the Junction city boys on the diamond again at the The growd was immense and the Salt

Lakers started out well with the game. Up FEIDAY, to the fifth inning Salt Lake had four tallies and Ogden a goose egg. From the beginning of the fifth maning to the end of the game Ogden took every thing and it the game Ogeen took every thing and it ended 4 to 6 in favor of Ogden. Dr. Joyce of Ogden umpired the game, and a Salt Laker was made official scorer which he took home to the capital city with him, and some of the members of the press could even get a glimpse of it.

The crowd was about two-thirds as large as on Decoration day. There were about twelve hundred people on the grounds. The Ogden boys seemed to be rattled up to be fourth inning.

It is said quite a considerable money changed hands.

More ladies attended the game than any day yet.
